Condition Code	Definitions
A-1	New or unused property in excellent condition. Ready for use and identical or interchangeable with new items delivered by a manufacturer or normal source of supply.
A-2	New or unused property in good condition. Does not quite qualify for A-1 (because slightly shopworn, soiled, or similar), but condition does not impair utility.
A-3	New or unused property in fair condition. Soiled, shopworn, rusted, deteriorated, or damaged to the extent that utility is slightly impaired.
E-1	Used property, but repaired or renovated and in excellent condition.
E-2	Used property which has been repaired or renovated and while still in good condition, it has become worn from further use and cannot qualify for excellent condition.
E-3	Used property which has been repaired or renovated, but has deteriorated and is only in fair condition. Further repairs or renovation required or expected to be needed in near future.
O-1	Property which has been slightly or moderately used, no repairs required and still in excellent condition.
O-2	Used property more worn than O-1, but still in good condition with considerable use left before any important repairs would be required.
O-3	Used property which is still in fair condition and usable without repairs; however, somewhat deteriorated, with some parts (or portions) worn and which should be replaced.
R-1	Used property still in excellent condition, but minor repairs required. Estimated cost of repairs would cost no more than 10% of the acquisition cost.
R-2	Used property in good condition, but considerable repairs required. Estimated cost of repairs would be from 11% to 25% of acquisition cost.
S - Salvage	Personal property that has some value in its basic material content, but which is in such condition that it has no reasonable prospect for use for any purpose as a unit and its repair or rehabilitation for use as a unit is clearly impractical.
W - Worthless	Property that has no value at all.
* Estimated Cost:	Actual acquisition cost (original cost) or the agency surplus officer's best estimate of the acquisition cost.
Please Note:	If you code items using the S or W condition code, please list this property on a separate DPGS-25 form.
